

The Program in Creative Writing presents

C.K. WILLIAMS
Reading Series
2018-2019

The C.K. Williams Reading Series showcases senior thesis students of the program in Creative Writing and features established writers as special guests. The series is named in honor of the late Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award-winning poet C.K. Williams, who served on Princeton's Creative Writing faculty for 20 years.

Hala Alyan

with

Mohamad Adnan

Kandace Rosser

Paul Schorin

Elias Stern

Sebastian Witherspoon

Joanna Zhang

FRIDAY, MARCH 8

6 P.M.

Labyrinth Books,

122 Nassau street

Hala Alyan is a Palestinian American writer and clinical psychologist whose work has appeared in The New York Times, Guernica and elsewhere. Her poetry collections have won the Arab American Book Award and the Crab Orchard Series. Her debut novel, SALT HOUSES, was published by Houghton Mifflin Harcourt in 2017; it was longlisted for the Aspen Words Literary Prize, a finalist for the Dayton Literary Peace Prize and the Chautauqua Prize, and was recently awarded the Arab American Book Award in Fiction.

Free and open to the public
arts.princeton.edu

 LEWIS CENTER
CREATIVE
WRITING | arts