"Shuffle Along" Latest Musical Gem to Invade Broadway

By Laura A. Walton

The newest and most ambitious musical attraction to grace the stages in New York is "Shuffle Along," now playing at the 8th Street Theatre. This production, under the direction of F. A.ged, also features the talents of the stars, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds.

The music, which is composed of songs, dances, and skits, is said to have been written by a noted composer, Mr. Smith. The libretto is by Mr. Adams, who has written for other musical productions.

The cast is headed by Mr. Brown, who has appeared in many successful productions. The leading lady is Miss Adams, who has been praised for her singing and dancing abilities.

The production is said to be a success, and the audience is eager to see it. The show is scheduled to run for several weeks, and it is expected to draw a large crowd.

Evelyn Ellis Scores in Another Success; Starring in "Peg O' My Heart"

By Bob Slawe

Evelyn Ellis has captured the attention of the Broadway audiences with her latest performance in "Peg O' My Heart." The play, which is a musical comedy, has been a box office success since its opening.

Miss Ellis, who is well known for her singing and dancing, has carried the entire play on her shoulders. Her singing of "Puttin' on the Ritz" and "My Life Is Just a Dream," has been particularly enjoyed by the audience.

Miss Ellis has received enthusiastic reviews from critics, who have praised her for her acting, singing, and dancing. The play is well written, and the music is composed by a noted composer, Mr. Smith.

The production is directed by Mr. Adams, who has been responsible for several successful productions in the past.

The cast is headed by Mr. Brown, who has appeared in many successful productions. The leading lady is Miss Adams, who has been praised for her singing and dancing abilities.

The production is said to be a success, and the audience is eager to see it. The show is scheduled to run for several weeks, and it is expected to draw a large crowd.

THEATRICAL JOINTS

By Bob Slawe

Howard and Carlotta are seen at the Ziegfeld Theatre last night. The couple, who have been married for several years, were there to watch a production of "Peg O' My Heart." Howard was seen sitting in the front row, while Carlotta was sitting next to him.

The production is a musical comedy, which has been well received by the audience. The music is composed by a noted composer, Mr. Smith, and the libretto is by Mr. Adams.

The cast is headed by Mr. Brown, who has appeared in many successful productions. The leading lady is Miss Adams, who has been praised for her singing and dancing abilities.

The production is said to be a success, and the audience is eager to see it. The show is scheduled to run for several weeks, and it is expected to draw a large crowd.